Thomas Cranmer - A Collection of Prayers

This dramatic account of Archbishop Thomas Cranmer's execution was written by an anonymous bystander. Cranmer was executed on 21 March 1556. Imprisoned by the Catholic Queen Mary I, Cranmer wrote a recantation of Protestantism, but he denied that recantation before he died. Mary had good cause to dislike Cranmer.

Thomas Cranmer: Sinning Reformer

One important element of Cranmer's life is left tantalizingly vague by his biographer. Cranmer married twice, but neither of his wives is described in any detail. Even his first wife's family name is speculation. His entire marriage to her is treated in two paragraphs (21-22). Of his second wife, scarcely more is known.
